COTTON MARKET.

Quotations furnished by W. B. Hibbe & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange, Hibbs Building.

New York, Dec. 23.—The market was very quiet to-er? and devoid of any particularly new features of importance. Outside of some scattered selling I some of the local and Wall street operators to even up over the triple holiday on the cotton exchange from this afternoon, there was little pressure on the market at any time during the day. Built leaders kept enough supporting orders in the hands of brokers to guard against the possibility of bear raids or other "accidents" to upset the market's
